

Lady Hartwell's GUIDE TO HOSTING A BRIDGERTON-VIEWING TEA PARTY

ATTIRE

Kindly don your most splendid attire, befitting the grandeur of this occasion. Ladies, your finest gowns and gentlemen, your dashing cravats, will only add to the splendor of the day. Shall you desire something in a more modern sensibility, we suggest any attire and adding smaller touches of dainty accessories: some gloves, a delightful brooch, a hat, or beautiful jewels.

SETTING

The parlor shall be adorned with delicate florals and fine linens. The table shall feature your best china and silverware, prepared to receive the esteemed company. In need of opulent regency? Why, one simply must pay a visit to Studio Hope Boutique, of course or your local charity proprietor.

TREATS & TEA

A selection of teas, from the robust Earl Grey to the delicate Darjeeling, shall be served in dainty teapots. Accompanying these, you may procure an array of delights: tasty finger sandwiches, freshly baked scones with lemon curd and jam, and an assortment of fine pastries.

Lady Hartwell's GUIDE TO HOSTING A BRIDGERTON-VIEWING TEA PARTY

COMPANY

But who to invite? Your neighbors, your friends, and/or family members who love to chitchat. Well behaved pets and men could be welcomed, too. Those you're close to, and those with whom you'd like to spend more time.

Send a little message, give a jingle, or use the post. Everybody loves to receive a letter!

CONVERSATION

To engage guests in lively discourse and merriment, we suggest to prepare a selection of parlour games or perhaps arrange a musical interlude, should one of your cherished guests be inclined to grace you with their talent. You may also use this as a chance to catch up on light gossip: nothing unkind, but some personal history. Stories and humor bring us all together, my dear!

Planning Tips

First, my dear, you must make sure you have all necessary spoils.

- |   |   |
|---|---|
| <input type="checkbox"/> Beautiful attire   | <input type="checkbox"/> Nice setting   |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Delightful treats  | <input type="checkbox"/> Entertainment  |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Freshly-brewed tea | <input type="checkbox"/> Lovely company |

Lady Hartwell's
GUIDE TO HOSTING A BRIDGERTON-VIEWING TEA PARTY

View a series videos produced by Alicia Robbins, Bridgerton Director of Photography for more tea party planning ideas at StudioHopeStore.org!

Studio HOPE BOUTIQUE
Vintage, Artisan and Curated Thrift

Shop for a Cause!

Studio Hope benefits non-profits Renal Support Network and Paws Fur Hope Pet Rescue.

Studio Hope is a vintage, artisan, and curated thrift boutique with proceeds benefitting non-profits Paws Fur Hope and Renal Support Network.

Created by Lori Hartwell, the store serves the local Burbank community as a hub for social gatherings, pet adoptions, holiday celebrations, and more. It has been listed on the LA Times' top 11 thrift stores in Los Angeles.

If you're interested in donating items to Studio Hope, please check out the website at StudioHopeStore.org for current items in demand. Give the store a follow on TikTok and Instagram to keep up with the latest sales and upcoming events.

817 N. HOLLYWOOD WAY

Store Hours:

Wed–Sat: 11am–6pm & Sun 11am–4pm

Parking in Back

StudioHopeStore.org • @StudioHope\_Burbank